Remake The Circle

1993 IAGSDC Convention Seattle, WA

Registration & Welcome Form

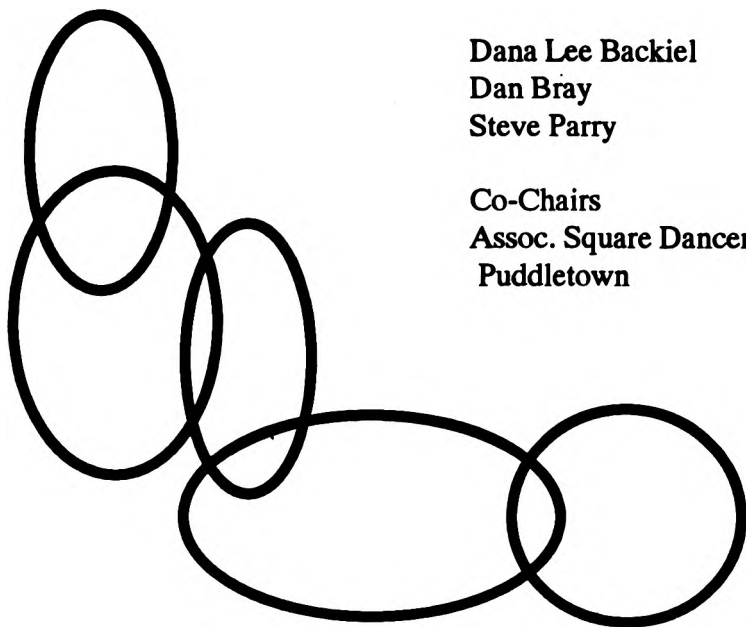

Square Dancing Enthusiasts!!

On behalf of the Coordinating Committee and other members of the Associated Square Dancers of Puddletown, we wish to extend a personal invitation to you to join us in Seattle, Washington, for the tenth year reunion convention of the International Association of Gay Square Dance Clubs, July 2 - 4, 1993. Our site on the University campus really compliments the theme of "Remake the Circle" which is homecoming. A lot of hard work by many dedicated individuals will be bringing you hours and hours of great dancing to eleven different, nationally recognized callers.

So "come on home" to Seattle in 1993 where the skies are blue, the women are hot and the boys are fabulous!!

HOUSING INFORMATION

There are a few important things to know about registering for housing at the convention.

- * Housing can accommodate 7, 8, 9, or 10 people in a cluster unit. Each cluster unit is comprised of several bedrooms, each accommodating either 1 or 2 people. Each cluster unit shares dorm-type facilities.
- * You may choose up to 9 of your acquaintances to join you in a cluster.
- * Any persons wishing to share a room or cluster of rooms must submit their applications at the same time.
- * All applications for housing must include a check, money order or cashier's check for full payment (see fees below). VISA or MasterCard are also accepted for payment.
- * We encourage you to submit your applications as early as possible. No applications will be accepted after June 10, 1993.
- * All applications and payments should be sent to the address listed on the application.

IMPORTANT: Do not send Housing Registrations/Fees to Associated Square Dancers of Puddletown. Send it to the University of Washington address on the form.

HOUSING FEES

- ☐ $ 141.11 Single Occupancy - 1 person in the room.
- ☐ $ 109.11 Double/Twin Occupancy - 2 persons in room.

(Prices are per person)

THE UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

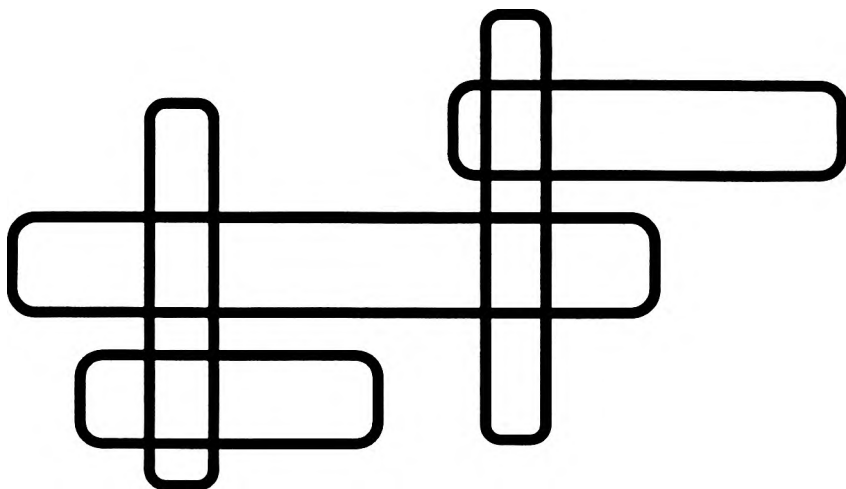

Site of the 1993 IAGSDC Convention

1993 is a year of home-coming. The fun of Gay and Lesbian square dancing kicked-off here 10 years ago and we're proud to be hosting the anniversary event. And, what better place to hold a home-coming than at the university?

The U. of W. is in the central part of Seattle, only minutes to, the waterfront, the Seattle Center, and the nightlife of Capitol Hill and downtown.

All our square dancing events are being held at the various facilities of the University. And our housing is in a dormitory facility near where dancing will take place.

Access to the university's intramural athletics building will be available to attendees for $3.50 per day. The athletics building has an indoor pool, sports courts, full equipped exercise room, and steam rooms.

TRAVEL ARRANGMENTS TO SEATTLE

We're happy to tell you we've engaged a local, gay owned and operated travel agency to help bring you to Seattle. Travel Solutions, appointed official travel agency for many conventions coming to Seattle, helped bring athletes to Seattle in 1991 to the Team Seattle Gay & Lesbian Intramural Sports Festival, swimmers to the 1992 International Gay & Lesbian Aquatics (IGLA) International Meet, and attendees from around the nation to the 1992 Parents & Friends of Lesbians And Gays (P-FLAG) Convention.

Travel Solutions will be negotiating special convention airfares, both for groups and individuals. We encourage you to give them a call to assist in your travel arrangements early. They have a convenient toll free phone number.

The folks at Travel Solutions can also arrange ground transportation for individuals or your group. Motorcoach, shuttle and rental cars are easy to reserve through the agency.

And, although we encourage you to maximize the fun of the IAGSDC Convention by staying with us at the University of Washington housing, Travel Solutions can arrange alternative housing to meet your needs.

For each airline ticket purchased at Travel Solutions, a 1% discount will be given off the ticket price. A further donation will be made to the IAGSDC local chapter to help defray costs of organizing the convention.

Be sure to be in touch with Travel Solutions early so they can be start the ball rolling along for you.

CONFERENCE HOUSING POLICY GUIDELINES

Our housing and meal service is offered as a package plan for fixed dates, with an additional daily charge for early arrival and late departure. No credit is given for a shorter stay or missed meals.

Short-Term Housing and Food Services

Delegates living in the residence halls less than two weeks are required to send full payment with their reservation form 21 days in advance of their check-in date to the Housing and Food Services Conference Housing and Special Office.

Long-Term Housing and Food Services

Delegates who are living in the residence halls for a period of two weeks or longer are required to send one-half of the full payment with their reservation form 21 days in advance of the conference to the Housing and Food Services Conference Housing and Special Services Office. The balance of payment will be due upon their arrival at the Conference desk.

LONG-TERM AND SHORT-TERM DELEGATES WHO CANCEL PRIOR TO TWO WEEKS (FOURTEEN NIGHTS) IN ADVANCE OF THE SCHEDULED CHECK-IN DATE WILL RECEIVE FULL REFUND, LESS THE RESERVATION FEE.

Cancellations and Refunds

Short-term and Long-Term occupancy: if an individual cancels thirteen nights or less prior to the scheduled check-in date, 10% of the conference's quoted rate for room and board will be retained as a service fee, and the balance will be refunded to the delegate.

No-Shows/Non-Cancellations

Long-Term and Short-Term delegates who do not cancel housing in advance of the scheduled conference date and do not appear for the housing reserved will forfeit 50% of the quoted rate for room and board.

In the event of a cancellation or no-show, the Reservation Fee plus state sales tax will not be refunded.

Method of Payment

Advance payments may be made by check, purchase order, Visa or Mastercard. Checks should be made payable to the University of Washington. If housing is still available for delegates without prior reservations, checks (made payable in U.S. Dollars for the exact amount owed, cash U.S. Currency only; Visa and Mastercard will be accepted at the Conference Desk. Arrangements may be made in advance to accept purchase orders upon arrival.

Accommodations

Residence hall accommodations are convenient to most meeting areas on campus. Many offer lake or territorial views. All rooms have single beds with bedding, towels, soap, drinking cups, and community bath facilities. Most rooms are double occupancy, although some single rooms are available. Attractive guest lounges, meeting areas, and private dining rooms are found throughout the halls. Beds are made and fresh towels provided daily and bed linen is changed once a week.

Token-operated automatic washers and dryers are conveniently located in each residence hall, as well as pay telephones and charge-a-call telephones for long distance dialing. Messages and mail notices will be posted on a message board. Mail for guests is held at the Conference Desk.

All meals are served in a dining hall reserved for conference delegates. Whatever your prearranged board plan may be, you will find a fine selection of carefully prepared items offered cafeteria or buffet style for breakfast, lunch and dinner each day. Choices of entrees, salads and desserts are designed to satisfy a variety of individual preferences.

Our residence halls are designed for adult usage, and our facilities are not childproof. We welcome children who will be supervised at all times. Parents take full responsibility for the actions of their children. Children under nine years of age may bring a sleeping bag to sleep on the floor in their parents' room at no additional charge, and are charged only half the adult food service rate. Those nine years and older must occupy a bed and are charged the full room and board rate. Cots, cribs, or extra bedding are not available.

Limited parking is available for individuals who choose overnight accommodations on campus and prices are subject to change. The charge is $4.50 Monday through Friday and $2.25 on Saturday. There is no charge on holidays and Sundays. As you enter the University of Washington entry gates you will pay for the first day. At the check-in lobby desk parking permits may be purchased for the balance of your stay. Please indicate disability parking needs on the reservation form. First priority is given to delegates requiring wheelchair accessibility.

Recreational campers or trailers are not permitted to park on campus or in University parking lots.

Upon receipt of this housing reservation form, the Conference Housing Office will forward a confirmation designating the housing check-in location. Delegates may check in beginning at 2:00 p.m. each day, unless the confirmation card states otherwise.

Check-out time is 11:00 a.m. unless otherwise arranged with your conference.
