A CATECHISM ON OBEDIENCE

In view of the recent Disturbances which have greatly vexed the Body of the Faithful and harmed the Peace of the Confraternity, we have seen fit to remind the Brethren of the Tenets of our Most Holy Order, and of the Rule to which they have sworn Obedience.

Forasmuch as the Confraternity be founded upon the Principles of Timeliness, Cleanliness and Musicality, it behooveth all the Brethren to listen to the salutary voice of Authority, and to be corrected by the same, in all matters touching punctuality, the despatching of Intelligences. Also the Brethren are instructed not to vanish from the Office to play Craps in the Casino upon every conceivable Occasion.

As is mentioned in our Most Excellent Rule; Section IX:

Let the Brethren remember their obedience, to each other, to the Confraternity in toto, and to the Temporal Naval Authorities. Let the Schedule be Strictly Observed, and Messages Promptly Dispatched and Responded to.

Let it be noted that the Expression of dissenting viewpoints is manifestly NOT included in the Rule, much less the expropriation of the Sea Monkey Newsletter to express the same scandalous opinions. Let all the Brethren humble themselves, lest they receive the Sentence of Anathema and Excommunication, and be cut off from the Body of the Confraternity.

We conclude with a brief exhortation to Repentance and Humility.

"As soon as he heard, he obeyed Me" (Psalm 17:45)

SUGGESTIONS FOR A PENITENTIAL PRAYER FOR AN ANONYMOUS HERETIC:

On my knees I beg forgiveness, from the LORD, and from my most reverend superiors,
For my insolence;
For my indolence;
For my youthful indiscretion;
For my obnoxious habit of vanishing whenever heavy lifting is to be done;
For my inability to learn the lyrics to the song which I have been Assigned;
For my insistence on skipping work to play Magic the Gathering;
For my growing addiction to gambling, which when combined with my complete inability to play Craps has led to me frittering away my meager earnings.

Let my insolence become meekness.
Let my indolence become industry.
Let my youthful indiscretion be ruled by my elders.
Let me labor diligently, and avoid the temptations of the Flesh.

Amen.
