DOOR DECORATIONS!

We loved seeing your door flair on JOCO 2019. But be warned! All door decorations must be removed by 2 am on Saturday (disembarkation day). If your decorations are not removed by then, the Oosterdam will start to remove them, and they will be fated to sail the seas on this ship.....forever.

BEWARE THE IDES OF MARCH!

Friends! Romans! Country monkeys! Lend me your ears. Today is the 2,063rd anniversary of Gaius Julius Caesar's "worst work meeting ever" in the Roman Senate.

The ship's newly reinstated historian seemed to think this was important. Fortunately Sea Monkeys are a friendlier lot than Brutus and Cassius. The only Caesar being murdered on board is the Salad on the Lido Deck. Still, better watch your back if you're Roman around the ship.

FAREWELL TO THE LEGOOSTERDAM

She was a good ship, and true. She faced dragons, aliens, and the terrible Kraken with fearless apolmb.

Her captain enchanted us with his recurring updates in the Daily Sea Monkey.
[editor's note: has anyone seen the Captain recently?]

But alas, the time has now come for the noble LEGOosterdam to embark on the great cruise in the sky. Please join us for a short decommissioning ceremony at 12:00 pm in the Deck One Atrium to pay our respects and put light around it.

JAMMIES!

It's the last full day of cruise, and though at our back we "hear time's wingèd chariot hurrying near," there's still time for music and fun!

And games. Always, always, games.

Today's theme is jammies! Whether you refer to them as pajamas or (incorrectly) as pyjamas, today is the day to break out your comfiest, softest PJs. We're all running out of clean laundry, anyway, right?

The word pajama derives from the Persian pāy-jameh ("leg-clothing"), which entered British English in the early nineteenth century from Hindustani.
Originally it referred to a loose set of trousers tied with a drawstring.
Today the term embraces a wide range of comfortable nightwear. In South Africa, pajamas are sometimes referred to as "night suits," a fact that just tickles us pink, and we wanted to share it with you.

Fun fact: In Chicago, it is illegal to fish in one's pajamas. We at the Sea Monkey would dearly love to know the story behind that one. Any tips can be delivered to the Info Desk.
