WHEREAS, the Colorado Bylaws further state that all decisions of the Judicial Committee must be in accordance with the Bylaws;

WHEREAS, the Colorado Bylaws have adopted Robert’s Rules of Order 12th edition as its parliamentary authority;

WHEREAS, Robert’s Rules of Order 12th edition defines what a decision of the Board is as follows in 1:6;

The basic principle of decision in a deliberative assembly is that, to become the act or choice of the body, a proposition must be adopted by a majority vote; that is, direct approval—implying assumption of responsibility for the act—must be registered by more than half of the members present and voting on the particular matter, in a regular or properly called meeting of the body.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLED DELEGATES IN CONVENTION OF THE LIBERTARIAN PARTY OF COLORADO, that the Judicial Committee has no jurisdiction over matters under the guise of “Board decisions” which were not propositions addressed as main motions that were either temporarily or permanently disposed of by at least a majority vote of the Board in a regularly or properly called meeting of the Board.

DELEGATE VOTING SHEET INSTRUCTIONS AND TIPS

This election is conducted via Approval Voting. This means that you can select as many people as you approve of UP TO 35. Please pay careful attention to that number. You can choose less if you wish but if you pick more your ballot will be invalidated. So before turning in the ballot please double check that you picked no more than 35 candidates. If you choose NOTA (which will always remain on the ballot) you cannot choose any other candidates and if you do, you will invalidate your ballot.

Also, it is required that the ballot have your handwritten legible name and signature. If the name is not legible, this may disqualify your ballot.

If you have any questions at all, please ask a member of the Teller team or the Convention Secretary Caryn Ann Harlos before turning in your ballot at the designated time or station. Do NOT fold your ballot in with anyone else's ballot.

It takes a majority vote for any candidate to be eligible for a seat. If more than 35 delegates get a majority, the ones with the most votes will fill the seats until all 35 are filled. Those who have a majority but are not in the top 35 are not automatically alternates. There is a separate ballot for alternates. Everyone who does not win a primary seat is automatically on the alternate ballot unless they ask to be excluded. Additional names can be nominated for the alternate ballot.

Write-ins are also always allowed.

If we do not fill our delegation, and there are not enough available alternates at convention, the Colorado delegation can vote to seat people who show up at the convention that are otherwise qualified unless they already were voted on at delegation and did not get a majority in either the primary or alternate ballot. At the national convention, alternates are seated in order of rank with rank being determined by the number of votes. Ties are broken randomly.

MAJORITY = 46

<sup>6</sup> The Secretary's audit found 91 ballots (with 46 making a majority) which should have been counted towards majority while Teller's report stated 93 ballots and 47 making a majority. This resulted from the Tellers counting the two ballots which were not able to be identified with a voter which is improper. This made a difference with David Aitken receiving 46 votes as per the Tellers. However, the Secretary's audit shows that David Aitken received 45 votes and did not make the threshold despite the threshold error.

Alternate Delegate Ballots

Although an instruction sheet was provided to the Tellers, in the Alternate ballot counts an illegal ballot was counted resulting in all totals of nominated candidates being off by one. This did not affect the results. There was a totaling error on the Final Tally Sheet in the Alternate ballots resulting on one winner (Stewart Bale) not being announced. Per RONR 45:41, this cannot be corrected after the fact as it was not challenged at the Convention. Fortunately, this delegate has stated that they are not able to attend Reno after all.
