Whereas, LNC Policy Manual §1.07.4(B)(I & II) prohibits LNC members from (I) disparaging the LNC or the Party and (II) engaging in ad hominem or otherwise indecorous attacks against fellow board members in any official or public communication;

Whereas, Mr. Martin made public posts on the social media platform X stating “This is straight up FRAUD” with the Special Investigatory Committee report adopted by the LNC, and posted a comparison of the LNC’s actions to “deep state” tactics, in direct violation of these provisions;

Whereas, Mr. Martin has since sent written communications to the full Board alleging “collusion,” “fraud,” “deception,” and “morally wrong” conduct by LNC members, further violating §1.07.4(B) and breaching his fiduciary duty of loyalty under the D.C. Nonprofit Corporation Act;

Whereas, Mr. Martin was given a written directive by the Chair to remove the offending posts, submit any supporting evidence internally, and refrain from further public commentary pending review, and has refused to comply;

Whereas, the April 28, 2025 Strategists Inc. Operational Review explicitly identified public disparagement, board infighting, and lack of professional restraint as damaging to morale, fundraising, and organizational stability, and recommended “restraint to create a cohesive brand that is not marred by sniping of opinions in forums outside the board room”;

Resolved, that the Libertarian National Committee hereby censures Mr. Martin for conduct in violation of the LNC Policy Manual, breach of fiduciary duty, and refusal to comply with the Chair’s directive;

Resolved, that this censure serves as a formal and public expression of the Board’s disapproval of Mr. Martin’s conduct, and that further similar conduct may result in the initiation of an investigative committee to consider additional disciplinary action.

5I – Motion to Censure Chair Nekhaila

Mr. Chadderdon moved motion to censure Chair Nekhaila

Whereas, on August 10, 2025, a motion was considered to amend the policy manual to include, among other changes, the language that “Communication with LNC Counsel: Only the LNC Chair and ExD shall have free and direct contact with LNC Counsel. LNC members wishing to make an inquiry of counsel shall seek permission from the LNC Chair. The LNC Chair shall serve as the intermediary between the inquiring LNC member and LNC counsel at their discretion”;

Whereas, the above reference Policy Manual amendment was not adopted;

Whereas, LNC Policy Manual §1.06.2 states that “The LNC shall be kept advised of the progress and goals of the suit. Any settlement or dismissal of the entire lawsuit recommended by the Executive Committee must be approved by the LNC.”

Whereas, Mr. Nekhaila has attempted to overstep his authority as Chair to interfere with inquiries to counsel by members investigating possible negligence and/or misconduct by Mr. Nekhaila;

Whereas, Mr. Nekhaila disclosed information containing sensitive legal strategy to an individual not authorized to receive it, and at odds with the LNC’s interests;

Whereas, Mr. Nekhaila has violated the fiduciary duty section of the policy manual, withheld legal updates from LNC members, and acted contrary to the best interests of the LNC;

Whereas, Mr. Nekhaila has denied LNC members access to General Counsel, placing the LNC potentially at risk of additional legal action;

Whereas, Mr. Nekhaila has acted outside of his authority in a manner that is unbecoming of a professional organization;

Whereas, in performing the above-mentioned acts, Mr. Nekhaila has violated his duty of care and created an irreconcilable conflict of interest;

Whereas, Mr. Nekhaila received multiple complaints under Policy Manual Section “Harassment and Offensive Behavior Prohibition” regarding the behavior of one individual, and failed to perform appropriate investigation or perform necessary corrective/preventative measures as required;

Whereas, Mr. Nekhaila later supported the subject of the insufficiently addressed harassment complaints for a promotion to an officer position;

POLICY MANUAL 1.07 FIDUCIARY DUTY VIOLATIONS

Whereas, Policy Manual Section C Subsection I Duty of Obedience states, “LNC members have a duty to act in a manner that carries out the LNC’s mission and purpose”;

Whereas, Policy Manual Section C Subsection II Duty of Care states, “LNC members have a duty to act in a manner that carries out the LNC’s mission and purpose”;

Whereas, Policy Manual section C Subsection IV Duty of Good Faith states that LNC members must act “with honesty”;

Be it resolved that Mr. Nekhaila is censured for the above actions.
