

Agreement of Voluntary Association of States for Regional Representation to the Libertarian National Committee

This agreement, once signed, shall serve to bind the participating affiliate parties into a Representative Region for the purpose of representation to the Libertarian National Committee (LNC). The following terms shall constitute the total agreement and shall outline the process and procedures for the selection of Representatives to the National Committee to serve on behalf of the Region.

The numbered identity of the Region shall be Region 6.

The States invited to participate in and constitute this Regional Agreement are: Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Vermont.

This agreement shall become effective upon filing with the Secretary of the national Libertarian Party a number of versions of this agreement signed by states with enough national party sustaining members to form a representative region. After this agreement has come into effect and before nominations have been opened at the regional caucus, a state affiliate may join or withdraw from this agreement with the written consent of a majority of the other state affiliates party to this agreement if the bylaws of the national Libertarian party so permit. Once nominations have opened, a state affiliate may join or withdraw from this agreement with the written consent of all other state affiliates party to this agreement if the bylaws of the national Libertarian party so permit.

The term of office for a regional representative or alternate shall commence at the close of the convention at which a representative region may be formed and shall end at the close of the next convention at which a representative region may be formed.

1. Process of Electing Regional Representatives to the LNC:
 - a. The delegates of the Region 6 States shall elect, either in person or via secure electronic/email ballot comparable to OpaVote, both a Primary Representative and an Alternate Representative to the Libertarian National Committee.
 - b. The method of electing these representatives shall be by separate ballots, conducted either in person or via secure electronic/email ballot comparable to OpaVote, and determined by Ranked Choice Voting (RCV) if necessary. An in person vote can also be conducted by a hand raise, voice or standing vote. The election for Alternate Representative shall not begin until the conclusion of the election of the Primary Representative.
 - c. The State Chairs shall provide the person or persons administering the election with an updated and accurate list of eligible delegates to participate in this election. The election administrator shall be responsible for the administration and reporting of the election results.
2. Responsibilities of Regional Representative:
 - a. The Regional Representative shall be responsible for publishing regular reports to the National Committee detailing the operations and activities of their constituent affiliate parties, as well as representing the constituent affiliates during deliberations and votes of the National Committee.
 - b. The Primary Representative and Alternate Representative, to accommodate the greatest representation among the state parties, shall be residents of different states.
 - c. State Chairs shall be responsible for communicating to their delegates the process by which representatives shall be elected as provided in this agreement.
3. Removal of Regional Representative:
 - a. The Primary Representative and Alternate Representative are both subject to recall and removal by a Vote of No Confidence by the Chairs of the Affiliate State Parties bound to the Regional Agreement. A Vote of No Confidence shall be considered to have passed if at least two-thirds of the Affiliate State Chairs bound to this Regional Agreement vote in the affirmative to remove.

4. Vacancy Procedures of Regional Representative:

- a. A vacancy in the position of Primary Representative shall be filled by the promotion of the Alternate Representative to Primary Representative.
- b. A vacancy in the position of Alternate Representative shall be filled by polling the Affiliate State Chairs bound to this Regional Agreement via approval voting among the candidates nominated from within the Region, in a manner to be chosen by those Chairs.
- c. Should a simultaneous vacancy occur in both the Primary Representative and Alternate Representative positions, the procedures outlined for the replacement of an Alternate Representative shall be used to fill both positions.

The undersigned State Chair agrees to commit their Affiliate State Party to be bound as part of the Regional Agreement for the duration of the term set forth in its conditions. Upon the commitment of enough State Affiliates to constitute a minimum of 10% of the total sustaining membership of the Libertarian Party, this agreement shall be considered valid.
