Chair Report:

On March 1st the LPNC held a successful rally, organized by Mike Ross over the arrest of a homeless army veteran, Joshua Rohrer. Mr. Rohrer was roughed up by the police and his service dog was tasered by the police. The rally was also in support of pastor Moses Colbert. Mr. Colbert has been trying to shelter and feed the homeless in his church and has been denied by the city. The city council and mayor have requested an independent investigation or called for the release of the body camera footage. There were about 30 people in attendance before the city council. There will probably need to be another rally at a future date.
