2026 NATIONAL CONVENTION DELEGATES CHOSEN

by Andrew Kolstee
LPNY Secretary

Recently, the LNC Secretary Evan McMahon posted the final delegate numbers for all the states for the 2026 National Convention. The cut off was October 31, 2025. New York, as a result, has 33 delegates.

This is a decrease of 8 delegates from the 2024 convention, where there were 41 delegates. This is attributed to the drop in votes for the Libertarian Party Presidential candidate. In 2020, Jo Jorgensen had over 60,000 votes in New York, while on the ballot. In 2024, Chase Oliver, who was a write-in candidate, only garnered over 5,000 votes. The lack of votes for Oliver directly resulted in the decrease of New York's delegation number.

Even though it was not enough, the Libertarian Party of New York is grateful for those who supported Chase Oliver as a write-in candidate, as voters for our candidate help our delegate count and are crucial for ballot access.

At the nominating convention of October 25, 2025, the number of delegates remained uncertain, and so only 30 were voted upon based on the rubric. An additional 3 delegates will be confirmed, along with the Alternates, in January 2026. Note that you can still reach out if you would like to be an Alternate Delegate. New York ended up with 15 Alternates in 2024, and the 15th Alternate ended up getting promoted to Delegate during the convention.

These are the names of those appointed as New York delegates to

LPNY DENOUNCES OSWEGO COMMON COUNCIL'S PROPERTY RIGHTS VIOLATION

DECEMBER 15, 2025 - The Libertarian Party of New York condemns the Oswego Common Council's 7-0 vote to revoke Anthony Schmitt's permission to maintain a wheelchair ramp on his property, ordering its removal over his refusal to sign a waiver and pay a fee for minor encroachment on public space.

This exemplifies government overreach violating property rights and liberty. Schmitt built a portable ramp that flips up to avoid obstructing the sidewalk, accommodating a family member's disability. The city's demands amount to regulatory extortion, ignoring common sense and compassion.

Property owners should control their land without interference, absent harm to others. This ramp poses no real threat.

We urge Oswego officials to reverse this decision, respect individual rights, and halt coercive local regulations. New Yorkers need freedom from unnecessary government burdens.

LPNY CONDEMNS PASSAGE OF COPA

DECEMBER 29, 2025 - The Libertarian Party of New York strongly opposes the recent passage of the Community Opportunity to Purchase Act (COPA) by the New York City Council on December 18, 2025.

This legislation represents a blatant infringement on private property rights, a core principle we hold sacred. By mandating that owners of certain multifamily residential buildings grant qualified nonprofits a right of first offer and right of first refusal before selling to private buyers, COPA effectively imposes government-forced preferences in voluntary transactions. Property owners should have the unfettered right to sell their assets to whomever they choose, at terms they negotiate freely, without interference from the state or favored third parties.

While proponents claim COPA will preserve affordable housing and combat displacement, it achieves the opposite in practice. Such interventions distort the housing market, discourage investment, prolong sales processes, and ultimately reduce the supply of available properties, driving up costs for all New Yorkers.

True solutions to housing affordability lie in reducing government barriers: eliminating excessive regulations, zoning restrictions, and taxes that stifle new construction and renovation.

We call on Mayor Adams to veto this bill and urge the City Council to reject any overrides. New Yorkers deserve freedom, not more coercive mandates that erode individual liberty under the guise of social good.

JUDICIAL REFORM

by Vincent O'Neill
State Committee Member (JD10)

“Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.” - Eighth Amendment

“A common argument defense lawyers make when trying to get courts to dismiss evidence obtained illegally against their client is that it was “the fruit of the poisoned tree”. The PATRIOT Act itself was the fruit of the tree of law enforcement’s relentless desire to be free of the inconveniences of the Fourth amendment and its guiding principles of privacy and due process.” - Brian Doherty, p. 17, Reason Magazine, November, 2021

A system of justice must replace the current ‘legal system as a Cash Cow’ system we have now.

1. Guilt, Innocence, and the Right to Trial by Jury

Requiring a unanimous verdict is a strategy used to cheat the defendant and guarantee a conviction. A very simple change eliminates this injustice.

If a unanimous verdict is required, anything less is an acquittal. According to the U.S. system, this is a ‘hung jury’, and a do-over occurs. The ‘government,’ which never pays its bills but has access to unlimited taxpayer funding, can now keep a defendant, whose funds are limited, going to court forever.

This is a recipe for deliberate dishonesty and the elimination of the right to a jury trial. It also explains the incredibly high percentage of cases which result in a ‘plea bargain.’

Solution

Once jury deliberation begins, juries will have as many business days as they require to reach a verdict. They can have as many votes each day as they like. The only one that counts is the last of the day.

They can vote on a maximum of 3 days.

The first vote must be unanimous for a conviction.

The second vote must be at least 11 of 12 for a conviction.

The third vote must be at least 9 of 12 for a conviction.

If any day’s last vote is less than 9 of 12 for conviction, it is an acquittal.

Anything less is not a “Hung Jury” or a “mistrial.” It is an acquittal. Jurors should not be forced to change their decision in order to reach an artificial unanimity. This will allow them to maintain their integrity.

2. Jury Selection

End stacking the jury, which is actually taught in U.S. “Law Schools”

Procedure:

Judge will ask prospective jurors if they know either lawyer, or the plaintiff, or the defendant. Anyone who does will be dismissed.

The Judge will also ask prospective jurors if they are prejudiced for or against the plaintiff or defendant to such an extent that they will be unable to provide a just verdict based on the evidence. Anyone who answers in the affirmative will be dismissed.

Additionally, each lawyer receives 2 peremptory challenges only.

3. Bail Reform

Although the Constitution forbids the institution of excessive bail, another strategy used by the prosecution is to keep a defendant who can’t make bail in jail indefinitely ‘awaiting trial.’ “Excessive Bail” is any amount a defendant cannot reasonably afford. Therefore, limits should be in place.

If a defendant is unable to make bail after two weeks, the bail is excessive and should be cut in half. If the defendant is still unable to make bail after an additional two weeks, it should be cut in half again. This will make sure that excessive bail cannot be imposed and will guarantee the defendant's right to a jury trial.

The other extreme, the abolition of bail, is also unacceptable. These simple changes will create the basis for a just system to replace the "Judicial System as Cash Cow" that we have now.

One final addition will be necessary.

4. "Loser Pays" If he brought the suit

In the English Legal System, the loser is responsible for the winning party's legal costs, including attorney's fees. This is an excellent way to get rid of frivolous and/or meritless lawsuits, but it needs one small improvement.

The improvement is to institute "Loser Pays," but only if he brought the suit. This is an improvement on the English system of "Loser Pays," since it eliminates the advantage a wealthy party would otherwise hold.
