

Who decides what political positions the Libertarian Party takes?

Who chooses the party's leadership?

Who decides on the future direction of the party?

You do – if you attend the 1998 Libertarian National Convention.

Dear Friend,

The 1998 convention will set the stage for Libertarian Party success into the next millennium.

Will you be there to help shape that future?

Even if you cannot be there, please read to the end of this letter.

I'll tell you what you can expect to see on C-SPAN, and how you can help us convert the thousands of inquiries we'll get from C-SPAN coverage into thousands of new contributing Libertarian Party members!

You know, the party has come a long way since my first national convention in Seattle in 1987.

Although I had called myself a libertarian for more than a decade, I had only been involved with the Libertarian Party for a couple of years.

(For a long time I hadn't even known where to find the party!)

Once I finally joined, for the first year or so my only contact with other Libertarians was a one-page mimeographed newsletter from the state party. It was printed poorly, and rarely contained any news of Libertarian success.

But I treasured the arrival of that little newsletter every month — because it let me know I was not alone.

It let me know that there were other people who saw through the big government smoke-screen, who knew that freedom works, and that freedom is right.

When I found a local Libertarian group an hour away, I got involved immediately.

The company of this small band of activists made me really enthusiastic. I felt I was part of a team that might really have an impact on the political system, that might roll back the enveloping tide of taxes and regulations, and might give America back its heritage of individual liberty and personal responsibility.

Imagine how energized I became when I was surrounded by hundreds of Libertarians at a National Convention!

Wow!

A camera crew from a national TV network was there — for the first time ever!

I got to meet and talk with Presidential candidates, past and present . . .

- ✓ Ron Paul, a four-term former Congressman.
- ✓ Russell Means, actor and Indian rights activist.
- ✓ Ed Clark, the man who got the Libertarian Party nearly a million votes.
- ✓ Tonie Nathan, the first woman to ever receive an Electoral College vote.

I got to hear Libertarian Party activists who had put both their lives and their principles on the line for Liberty . . .

- ✓ Draft opponent Paul Jacob.
- ✓ Sexual rights activist Norma Jean Almadovar.
- ✓ Tax resisters Jim Lewis and Karl Hess.

I got to debate party principles with economist Murray Rothbard, and Reason magazine founder Bob Poole. I improved my fledgling activist skills at the "how-to" seminars.

And I got to help shape the course of the party's future by campaigning on the convention floor for my choice for our presidential candidate.

It was an experience I'll never forget!

This year is your chance for a supercharging Libertarian experience that will leave you with memories for a lifetime.

Some of those Libertarian heroes I met way back in '87 will be at this year's convention, too. And they'll be joined by many more stars of freedom . . .

Don't miss the convention kickoff — the "First Step to Victory" party on Wednesday — with the funniest comedian I've seen in many years, Tim Slagle. Tim will mix the message of Liberty with government-bashing satire in a performance you will talk about for a long time. The party will also feature live music and dancing, and a chance to see old friends and meet new ones.

Official business opens Thursday with a bang, with:

- ✓ Keynote address by oratory dynamo Michael Cloud on "The Libertarian Party: The Unreasonable Alternative."
- ✓ Renowned author Charles Murray on "What it Means to be a Libertarian."
- ✓ Advocates for Self Government president Sharon Harris explains "How to Answer the Toughest Questions in 30 Seconds."
- ✓ And Tanya Metaksa, voice of the National Rifle Association, will explain how the Second Amendment protects all of our other rights.
- ✓ Followed by an evening of side-splitting musical comedy by the country's premiere political satirists, The Capitol Steps.

And that's just the first day! Before you even have time to catch your breath, Friday brings you:

- ✓ The most passionate speaker in the Libertarian Party, Jacob Hornberger, explaining why America needs "Open Minds on Open Borders."
- ✓ The Cato Institute's Mike Tanner on "Ending Intergenerational Plunder."
- ✓ Barbara Goushaw tells why "Handguns Are a Girl's Best Friend"
- ✓ David Boaz, author of Libertarianism: A Primer and The Libertarian Reader tells us of "Liberty vs. Power, the Eternal Struggle."
- ✓ And civil rights veteran Roy Innis speaks on "Libertarians, the Political Pioneers of the 21st Century."
- ✓ Capped by a showing of the Academy Award-nominated documentary Waco, Rules of Engagement, followed by a Q&A session with the movie's producers, Dan and Amy Gifford.

Saturday really heats up with:

- ✓ Walker Chandler, the first Libertarian to win a Supreme Court victory against the drug war, speaking on "Ending Prohibition Again."

- ✓ Shelley Davis, IRS historian and whistle-blower, and author of Unbridled Power, will speak on the unbridled abuses of the government's most feared agency.
- ✓ Elected Libertarians and their campaign managers show you how to repeat their successes, both at winning elections and at rolling back government once in office.
- ✓ And 1996 Libertarian Party presidential candidate Harry Browne presents "The Most Powerful Political Message in the World."
- ✓ Followed by the Gala Awards Banquet, honoring our party's most dedicated candidates and activists. And comedy from New York's top-rated talk show host, WABC radio's Lionel. Then, dancing 'til you drop.

During the convention you'll also hear from:

- ✓ Reason magazine founder Robert Poole.
- ✓ Washington State Supreme Court Justice Richard Sanders.
- ✓ And the Libertarian Party's modern-day Patrick Henry, KGO talk radio star Gene Burns on "The Promise of Liberty."

All this will take place on a spectacular stage worthy of a major party.

We'll have an elaborate sound system, two cameras to project the action on a giant screen next to the stage, and a huge, 18-foot-tall, three-dimensional scale model of the US Capitol to serve as the backdrop for our speakers.

If that's not enough, we're also featuring training sessions by our top candidates and campaign managers.

Plus presentations by Libertarian talk show hosts, media panels, issue panels, and more. And a hall filled with exhibitors from every facet of the Libertarian movement.

Plus: Our all-day, intensive candidate-training session by campaign consultant Jerry Russell begins on Wednesday July 1st at 8:00 am sharp. If you want to learn how to run a winning campaign — from someone who has won his last 19 straight elections — this is the place to be!

Plus, you'll vote on changes to the party's official platform...

... and will have the opportunity to personally propose changes to the platform from the convention floor.

Perhaps the most important part of the convention will be the election of the new Libertarian National Committee. The two years since the last convention have seen tremendous growth for the party.

- ✓ We've topped 25,000 members — a 60% increase in less than two years.

But with growth comes both opportunities and obstacles. The choices you make at this convention will influence the course of the party for decades to come.

- ✓ You will vote for the new officers of the party, including the new National Chairman.

You will select the people who will set the party's agenda for the next two years.

But only if you are there!

And we are giving you all this at a package price less than what it cost me to attend my first Libertarian Party convention 11 years ago.

We've gone to great lengths to make sure this convention is affordable to our members.

Not only is the package price the lowest this decade, we've obtained discounts on air fares of up to 15% for advance purchases. Plus, room rates are only two dollars higher than in '96.

This national convention will be our largest outreach event ever.

We'll have Libertarian talk show hosts broadcasting from the convention. While C-SPAN never confirms events ahead of time, their officials have said they'll be covering this convention. Callers to our 800# from C-SPAN coverage of our conventions are one of our best sources of new members.

And this year we'll be set up to take their memberships immediately over the phone and on our website.

And that's where I need your help, even if you cannot attend the convention.

- ✓ First, will you tell your friends to watch us on C-SPAN? The convention creates a great first impression of our party.

And this is not some boring, staged, and stodgy convention like the other parties put on. No, this is . . .

A freewheeling, rollicking, free market of ideas in action!

- ✓ Second, we need to be prepared for the onslaught of inquiries we'll get from C-SPAN.

This means we need to plan ahead . . .

We need to prepare for more printing charges for more information packs. Extra operators to staff the 800# lines. Extra work following up on the inquiries – to make sure the LP is at its strongest as we head into the Fall elections.

We have to turn those inquiries into enthusiastic and active Libertarian Party members . . .

- ✓ So more Libertarians will be elected this fall.
- ✓ So more taxes will be cut.
- ✓ So more of our liberties will be preserved.

Just the 800# service during the convention may cost $20,000, or more. When you include just phone charges, printing, and postage, it will cost $3.36 to respond to each inquiry – and we may get 10,000 or 15,000 or more inquiries in just four days!

We can't wait until the convention to see how many people will call.
We have to order materials now so we can respond instantly – no matter how many inquiries we get.

- ✓ If you can contribute $1,000, you'll send information on the only political party that fights for all of our rights all of the time to 298 hot Libertarian prospects.
- ✓ If you can send $500, you'll help us send info packs to 149 potential new members.
- ✓ $100 means we will reach 29 potential Libertarian Party candidates and contributors.
- ✓ Even $25 will reach seven prospects, and will almost certainly bring in at least one new member . . . a new member who could be our next Harry Browne or Jo Jorgensen, or our next elected Libertarian.

Will you please send in your convention registration today?

Help us look good to the national television audience by filling our convention hall to overflowing!

And whether or not you can attend, will you please enclose your best donation so that we can reach out to thousands of prospective

Libertarians through our C-SPAN coverage?

Your best contribution — whatever you can afford — will help us bring thousands of new activists into the Libertarian Party.

I'm counting on you to make this the most successful Libertarian Party convention ever.

I hope to see you with us on C-SPAN at our July 4th convention.

Thank you.

Ron Crickenberger
National Director, Libertarian Party

PS: When it comes to excitement . . . the thrill of meeting hundreds of enthusiastic liberty-lovers . . . rubbing shoulders with the top thinkers and writers and speakers in the libertarian movement . . . charting the course of the LP for years to come . . . nothing beats a National Convention!

We'd hate for you to miss the 1998 Convention. So here's a special, money-saving offer: We're extending the early registration deadline until May 31st. Register by that date and save $30 per person off every package price.

Call (800) 722-5141 to register right now. Or check out the enclosed brochure for complete details on how to register by mail or fax.

PPS: If you cannot attend the convention, can you please help us with your most generous contribution for membership growth? We'll get thousands of inquiries from our C-SPAN coverage — your best donation will help convert them into thousands of new members.

- ✓ Want to be the person who introduces 29 potential candidates and contributors to the Libertarian Party? $100 is all it takes.

The 1998 Convention is a huge opportunity to grow the party. But we need to get ready now! Can we count on your help? Thank you.

"This seminar was incredible! I've won two elections and still found an immense amount of new, great ideas for my next re-election campaign!"

— SANDI WEBB, Simi Valley (California) City Council Member

LEARN HOW TO WIN ELECTIONS WITH GRASS ROOTS CAMPAIGNING: A SEMINAR BY JERRY RUSSELL

In conjunction with the '98 Libertarian National Convention, Jerry Russell, president of Campaign Consultants, will present an intensive seminar on winning elections. Russell has worked in over 200 races from U.S. Senator and gubernatorial level down to local legislative and judicial races — and has maintained a 70% winning track record. He has won his last 19 out of 19 political contests.

Russell has won races for Democrats, Republicans, independents, and referendum groups.

Russell also publishes the excellent newsletter Grass Roots Campaigning.

His specialty is low-cost, highly effective grass roots campaigning techniques and tactics. His strategies are particularly useful for under-funded Libertarian candidates, since Russell has won most of his electoral contests even though outspent by his opponents.

"I would urge every LP member who wants to improve his candidate or campaign management skills to attend Russell's seminar," said Ron Crickenberger, the LP's National Director. "You'll raise more money, earn more votes, and be a better representative for the party."

"Jerry gave detailed information on specific topics of campaigning, always backed up by real-life experience. It was extremely valuable."

— Dan Wiener

The "Grass Roots" seminar will be held from 8:30 am - 6:30 pm, Wednesday, July 1, with a wrap-up continental breakfast on Thursday. Registration is separate from attendance at the LP Convention.

This valuable seminar is being made available to the LP at the discount price of only $89 per person — if you register before May 1.

The Jerry Russell "Grass Roots Campaigning" seminar will take your campaign to the next level of professionalism. Session topics include:

- What to do before you tell Momma you are running.
- We Gotta Get Organized!
- Structuring your campaign for maximum success.
- How to Raise your First $200,000 in contributions.
- Media for Your Message: Effective campaign communications.
- The Road to Victory: Developing an effective message and strategy.

"Jerry Russell is to Libertarian campaigns what Carville was to Bill Clinton's first presidential victory: Hardball, bright, and brilliant. An excellent seminar."
—Michael Cloud

CHARLES MURRAY

The author of two of the most influential libertarian books of this generation: Losing Ground, the devastating and exhaustively researched expose of the destructiveness of government welfare, and What It Means to Be A Libertarian, which outlined how liberty creates a "civil society."

ROBERT POOLE

He founded the influential free-market Reason Foundation and helped make "privatization" — both the revolutionary concept and the word itself — part of contemporary political discourse across the USA and around the world, thanks to his classic book, Cutting Back City Hall.

DAVID BOAZ

Executive vice president of the prestigious and hard-hitting Cato Institute and the author of the book, Libertarianism: A Primer — described as a "bracing shot of 100-proof libertarianism" that generated widespread critical acclaim when it was published last year.

LIBERTARIAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

JULY 2-5, 1998
WASHINGTON DC

INSIDE:

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW
TO SIGN UP FOR THE LIBERTARIAN EXPERIENCE OF YOUR LIFE!

HARRY BROWNE

The Libertarian Party's 1996 candidate for president, best-selling author of 10 books (including Why Government Doesn't Work), public speaker, and world-renowned investment advisor. As the LP's presidential candidate, he appeared on more than 500 radio and TV programs, earned over 100 endorsements, and won the party's second-highest vote total ever: 485,759 votes.

Speakers confirmed as of May 1, 1998.

More speakers will be announced.

See LP News for updated information about the Convention & new speakers.

MICHAEL TANNER

One of the nation's leading experts on privatizing Social Security, and Director of Health & Welfare Studies at the non-partisan Cato Institute.

BARBARA GOUSHAW

Founder and head of the Libertarian Campaign Managers Association in Michigan and campaign manager for Jon Coon's U.S. Senate race (1994).

GENE BURNS

Named the "Best Radio Talk Show Host in America," he broadcasts his mellifluous libertarian opinions from KGO in San Francisco.

FRED COLLINS

Elected member of the Berkley (Michigan) City Council, he won office by focusing on three issues: Taxes, regulation, and "volunteerizing" city activities.

THE 1998 LIBERTARIAN NATIONAL CONVENTION!

Be a part of Libertarian Party political history!

Are you ready to enjoy the Libertarian experience of your life? Are you ready for the most energizing, informative, and important LP event of the year? Then sign up now for the '98 Libertarian National Convention!

The theme of the Convention is "The Road to Victory." The convention will be a celebration of the growth of the Libertarian Party over the past several years, and is your opportunity to help chart the course of the party through the year 2000.

As a delegate, you will:

- Debate and vote on the LP Platform.
- Select the LP's leadership.
- Hear a fascinating line-up of speakers, experts, and panels.
- Meet hundreds of fellow Libertarian activists from all over the nation.

The convention will be held in Washington, DC — so bring your entire family.

Here's all the information you need to register and attend . . .

■ WHO CAN ATTEND?

All Libertarian Party members, guests, and interested individuals can attend the Convention. However, to participate in official Convention business, you must be a state party delegate. (Most states have not yet filled out their entire delegate slates. So there's still plenty of time for you to contact your state party leadership for information on becoming a delegate. Not sure how to contact your state party? Give us a call at (202) 333-0008.)

■ WHEN IS IT?

Official Convention business is scheduled for July 2 to 5, 1998

(Thursday to Sunday). But Jerry Russell's "Grass Roots Campaigning" seminar is on Wednesday (July 1), and the Convention kick-off party is Wednesday night.

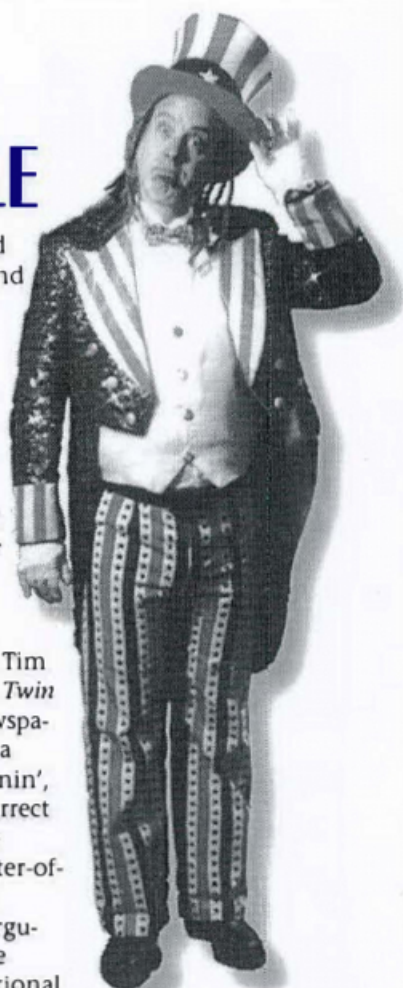

■ I WANT TO ATTEND. WHAT DO I DO FIRST?

1. Send in the Convention registration form. (Act before May 31, and save $30 per person.)
2. Make hotel reservations. (Keep reading for details.)
3. Make travel arrangements. (Keep reading for information on

TIM SLAGLE

He's been called "provocative and damn funny."

He "fights a never-ending battle for truth, Liberty, and the American way" — while sneaking barbed libertarian insights among his comedy gems. He's comedian Tim Slagle, and the Twin City Reader newspaper called him a "droll, flag-burnin', politically incorrect satirist. Slagle's delivery is matter-of-fact yet plenty polished, his arguments are more consistently rational than most you'll hear on C-SPAN, and the punch lines are potent and abundant."

'LIONEL'

He's a top-rated talk show host on New York's WABC — and a wry stand-up comedian who specializes in "irreverent, non-conformist" commentary.

ROY INNIS

As National Chairman of the Congress of Racial Equality, he's a leading figure in the American civil rights movement—but is better known for his outspoken and controversial anti-affirmative action, pro-Second Amendment, and pro-personal responsibility positions.

TANYA METAKSA

She's the "voice" of the National Rifle Association. As the Director of the NRA's Institute for Legislative Action, Metaksa works to protect gun rights in the state and federal legislative arena. She's also the author of Safe Not Sorry, a woman's self-protection book.

DAN GIFFORD

With his wife Amy Gifford, he's the producer of the Academy Award-nominated documentary Waco: The Rules of Engagement, which paints a devastating picture of out-of-control federal agents at Waco. The movie will be shown, followed by a Q&A session with the Giffords.

money-saving air fares.) 4. Contact your state party about becoming a delegate, if you wish to participate in official Convention business.

■ WHERE IS THE CONVENTION?

The Washington Convention Center at 900 Ninth Street, NW, in downtown Washington, DC. Lodging is available in the Renaissance Washington Hotel, right across the street.

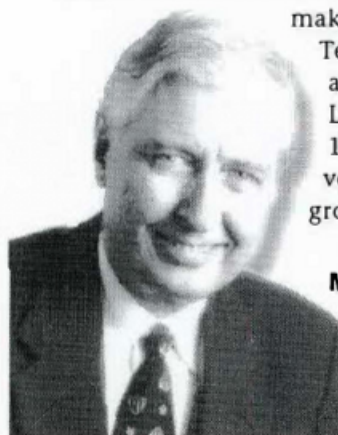

■ WHAT WILL HAPPEN AT THE CONVENTION?

- Wednesday night welcome party (July 1)
- Election of party officers
- Election of the National Committee
- LP Platform debate and changes
- Major speakers and panels
- Huge vendor & exhibitor area
- Candidate training sessions
- Gala banquet & awards
- The Capitol Steps and Tim Slagle

■ HOW DO I RESERVE MY ROOM?

Special discount room prices of only $101 per night (single or double) are available at the Renaissance Washington Hotel. Please call the hotel directly to make your reservation.

Tell them that you are attending the Libertarian Party's 1998 National Convention. For special group rates, make candidate.

your reservation no later than May 29, 1998! (Room rate does not include DC's 13% sales tax or $1.50 a night occupancy tax). For reservations, call: (800) 228-9290 or (202) 898-9000.

■ HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

We've extended the early registration discounts — so you can still take advantage of the lowest convention prices of the decade. There's a package available for every price range:

Only $289 BY MAY 31ST

The deluxe, all-inclusive package. Includes Convention Hall floor pass (all speakers and business sessions), all panels, all "break-out" speakers, Libertarian Victory briefings, access to the Exhibit Hall, "First Step to Victory" opening night party, Waco: The Rules of Engagement tickets, two luncheons with famous libertarian authors, convention souvenir, the program booklet, the Capitol Steps, gala Convention Honors & Awards Banquet.

Enjoy funnyman Tim Slagle's libertarian comedy at the 1998 Convention.

THE CAPITOL STEPS

The Capitol Steps will bring their unique brand of musical comedy to the LP's National Convention on Thursday, July 2nd. Former Capitol Hill staffers with a talent for singing and satire, the Capitol Steps have become a "must-see" in the nation's capital, and have appeared on numerous TV and radio programs.

In doing so, they have won praise from the Los Angeles Times ("sharp-edged political humor"); the Washington Post ("high-energy political satire"); and the Boston Globe ("up-to-the-minute parodies of political shenanigans."). Don't miss them!

SHELLEY DAVIS

She's #1 on the IRS's hit list. After seven years as the IRS's historian, she blew the whistle on the feared agency with her book, Unbridled Power.

SHARON HARRIS

President of the Advocates for Self-Government — a nonpartisan group that teaches Libertarians how to be more effective communicators.

MICHAEL CLOUD

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
Creator of the "Art of Political Persuasion" audio tape series and one of the LP's most eloquent, popular speakers.

FINLAY ROTHHAUS

In 1992, he became one of four elected Libertarian State Representatives in New Hampshire — and he's still in office, as a Selectman in Merrimack.

WALKER CHANDLER

He went to the Supreme Court in 1997 — and won. Representing himself, Chandler overturned a Georgia law requiring candidate drug testing.

Only $229 BY MAY 31ST

Includes Convention Hall floor pass (all speakers and business sessions), all panels, all "break-out" speakers, Libertarian Victory briefings, access to the Exhibit Hall, "First Step to Victory" opening night party, Waco: The Rules of Engagement tickets (while supplies last), convention souvenir, the program booklet, the Capitol Steps, and the gala Convention Honors & Awards Banquet.

(NOTE: Silver package does not include two lunches.)

Only $139 BY MAY 31ST

Includes Convention Hall floor pass (all speakers and business sessions), all panels, all "break-out" speakers, Libertarian Victory briefings, access to the Exhibit Hall, "First Step to Victory" opening night party, Waco: The Rules of Engagement tickets (while supplies last), convention souvenir, and program booklet.

(NOTE: Bronze package does not include two lunches, the Capitol Steps, and Gala Awards Banquet.)

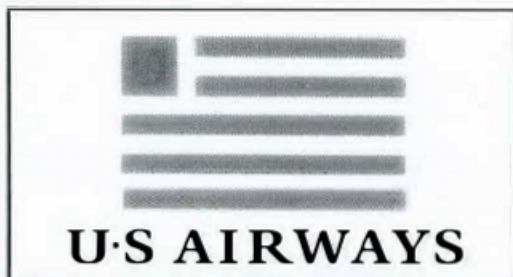

(Note: If seats are available, individual tickets will be available for lunches, the Awards Banquet, and the Capitol Steps. However, events are less expensive if you purchase a Convention package.)

■ CAN I GET DISCOUNT AIRLINE TICKETS?

Yes. US Airways has been designated as the official carrier for the Libertarian Party's 1998 National Convention, and will offer exclusive low fares for attendees:

■ A 5% discount off First or Business Class and any published US Airways promotional round-trip fare.

■ A 10% discount off unrestricted coach fares (with seven-day advance reservations and ticketing required.)

■ An extra 5% discount by ticketing 60 days or more prior to departure.

These discounts are valid provided all rules and restrictions are met and are applicable for travel from all points on US Airways' route system. Not combinable with other discounts or promotions. Fares are valid three days before and after the meeting dates: June 28th to July 8th, 1998. Additional restrictions may apply on international travel.

To obtain these discounts, you or your travel agent must call US Airways' Meeting & Convention Reservation Office at (800) 334-8644. Call 8:00 am to 9:00 pm EST. Refer to Gold File No. 176 101 07.
