Welcome to The Spark.

The Spark is your one-stop shop for Liberty news and updates, igniting the flame of Liberty, and bringing the Party and the movement together to keep us connected in just a few minutes each week.

There's a lot happening across the Libertarian Party. Keeping up shouldn't require searching multiple websites and social feeds. The Spark will deliver a single, weekly source, shipped to your inbox every Thursday at 1 PM ET.

Look for updates from our Chair, libertarian thought leadership, upcoming events, news about the Party, accomplishments worth celebrating, candidate and election progress to follow, media appearances, opportunities to get involved, and lots more. We'll include links so you can explore the stories that interest you, hear directly from the people doing the work, and find your next step.

This first edition is a preview of what's coming. As The Spark develops, starting next week, we want it to reflect the ideas, effort, and people moving the Party forward. That includes work happening in state and local parties, committees, and communities across the country. If there's something others should know about, help us bring it into view.

We need volunteers to support this and other initiatives. We're looking for people who want to get involved with content, production, and organization for the newsletter, as well as native video content creation and editing for social media and the live shows we're planning. If these aren't your areas of expertise or interest, there are plenty of other opportunities to volunteer. Reach out to communications@lp.org to get involved.

Thanks for joining us at the beginning. We look forward to building The Spark with you.
